Purpose of the Collection: To support the curricular and research needs of faculty and students of the Institute of International Business. Degrees offered by the Institute include the Master of International Business (MIB), Master of Business Administration with a Concentration in International Business, and Ph.D. with a Specialization in International Business. The program focuses on managerial issues in the global marketplace and intercultural awareness. Of particular interest are emerging markets, border business activities, and the study of the political, cultural, and commercial environment within which cross-border trade and investment activates take place. Specializations may include international management, international finance, IT, international marketing and international entrepreneurship.

General Collection Guidelines:

- Languages: English is the primary language of the collection. Foreign language materials are added upon request, especially those of the Middle East.
